REPORT NO. E497109

CASE # 15-203522

DATE AND TIME
OF COLLISION 12/22/15 23:15

On 12/22/15 at approximately 2315, I was working as a general commissioned uniformed police officer for the City of Lake Stevens police department driving a marked police vehicle equipped with emergency lights and siren.

I was dispatched to the 100 block of 87th Ave NE for a single car collision with a tree.

Upon arrival I saw a silver Jeep Wrangler had left the roadway and struck two large rocks that were in the grass medium between the roadway and the side walk. This Jeep continued over the rocks and into and up a tree. The tree had been partial uprooted and was leaning over and almost onto the residence to the immediate north of where the Jeep finally stopped. The jeep was elevated in the air with only the two driver's side tires on the ground and leaning almost to flipping over.

As I got out of my vehicle several bystanders pointed out an adult female who was standing at the open driver's side door of the vehicle. I could see she was unsuccessfully trying to slam the door closed.

It appeared to me that the vehicle could finish rolling over so I repeatedly called to this female to come talk with me so as to get her out of danger. She stumbled around and seemed very confused. She finally followed my directions and approached me at my vehicle while carrying her purse.

I identified myself, leaned in close to her so I could hear her and asked her what happened and if she was the driver. I could smell the distinct odor of intoxicants coming from her.

She answered that she was the driver and the Jeep was hers. She told me she didn't know what happened. She repeatedly told me she lived just a block down the road and told me she wanted me to go to her house with her.

As she spoke the odor of intoxicants became much stronger. I could see she had blood shot and watery eyes. As she was talking with me she was swaying back and forth as if a strong wind was blowing. There wasn't any. She was slightly slurring her words but was understandable

I asked her if she was hurt or injured. She repeatedly told me she was ok.

I asked her if she had anything to drink tonight. She hesitated and then responded, "Umm...two (2) beers."

I asked her for her driver's license. She seemed confused by my request. I repeated myself four or five more times before she seemed to understand. She walked away from me and to the driver's side of the vehicle. She began going through her purse - eventually retrieving her wallet. While standing at the driver's door and with the vehicle leaning over us she continued to look through her wallet and ignoring my directions to step back and away from the leaning car. I watched her pass over her driver's license at least ten (10) times before I pointed out her driver's license and asked her to hand it to me. She continued to look through the wallet until I finally pointed the license out to her. She tried to hand me a credit card, corrected herself and then handed me her punched driver's license.

I was able to persuade her to step back with me to my vehicle. As we were walking back to my vehicle I noted she was concentrating very hard on walking. I asked her how much she had to drink tonight. She replied, "A little bit."

I positively identified her as Christine M Hutchinson 10/31/1968 by her Washington State driver's license.

I requested a State Trooper to the scene to take over any further potential DUI investigation.

I had HUTCHINSON sit in the rear seat of my vehicle and advised her she was being detained for investigation of driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor and/or drugs. I advised her WSP was enroute to continue the investigation and we were going to wait for their arrival.

While we waited, HUTCHINSON became very emotional and repeatedly told me, "Just take me where ever the fuck u want to take me!"; "Just take me to jail!" and "I don't care about living anymore!"

HUTCHINSON became angry with me and told me to stop talking to her like she was a child.

I told her, "I'm not. I think you had too much to drink and made a mistake tonight. I don't think you're a bad person. I believe you are impaired due to your consumption of intoxicants and you aren't able to safely operate a vehicle. Would you agree?"

HUTCHINSON replied, "Yeah."

I asked HUTCHINSON, "If you hadn't been drinking do you think you would have crashed?"

She replied, "No."

I told her, "Then sit back and relax. We are going to wait for the State Patrol. When they arrive the Trooper will take over any further investigation. Ok?"

She then began demanding to know why WSP was getting involved and repeatedly demanded I handle the investigation and take her to jail.

While waiting for WSP Troopers to arrive an adult male and four (4) juveniles approached me. The man introduced himself as HUTCHINSON's husband and two of the juveniles as their children. After I answered their questions, Mr. Hutchinson asked if I could retrieve the Christmas presents from the vehicle. I agreed to do so.

At approximately 0010, WSP Trooper Baffa #920 and Trooper Lee arrived on scene. I explained my observations since arriving on scene to Trooper Baffa and requested she continue any further DUI investigation. She agreed.

Trooper Baffa and Lee contacted HUTCHINSON as she was seated in the rear of my vehicle and began their investigation.

For further information concerning Trooper Baffa's investigation refer to her case narrative.

As Trooper Baffa's investigation began HUTCHINSON repeated tried to walk away. When she was guided back she repeatedly pulled her hands and arms away from both the Troopers as well as me.

We were able to grab ahold of HUTCHINSON and guide her to Trooper Baffa's car where HUTCHINSON was pinned against the vehicle and secured in handcuffs. HUTCHINSON repeated exclaimed she wasn't resisting but repeatedly tried to pull her arms/hands away from us. She was finally secured in handcuffs without injury.

Trooper Baffa left with HUTCHINSON in custody and I remained on scene to process the collision.

Via Dispatch, I requested a tow company to the scene to remove the vehicle. R&R Towing was dispatched.

I contacted the original reporting party, Sandra Roman, who agreed to provide a written statement. She told me the woman (HUTCHINSON) I had been talking to and who kept walking away from me was the driver of the Jeep, She told me that the woman repeatedly tried to drive away from the crash scene but wasn't able to get the Jeep off of the tree.

Reference statement - ROMAN

Once R&R Towing arrived and had pulled the Jeep off of the tree I retrieved the presents as requested. Once the vehicle was in custody of R&R Towing I went to the Hutchinson residence and contacted Mr. Hutchinson. I handed him the packages from the vehicle as well as a copy of the Impound authorization and Driver's instructions on how to retrieve their Jeep from the tow company.

Once his questions were answered I returned to my patrol functions.
